

Conditions of Entry and Use

Welcome to Chapel Off Chapel

Your entry to Chapel Off Chapel located at 12 Little Chapel Street, is subject to these terms and conditions of entry.

The purpose of these Conditions of Entry is to ensure the safety and enjoyment of all visitors to Chapel Off Chapel.

Summary

You must comply with these conditions and follow the reasonable directions of Chapel Off Chapel team members, as well as any signage in relation to your entry and use of the premises. We reserve the right to deny entry to or remove any person from the premises.

By entering the Venue, or possessing a ticket for entry to the Venue, you are deemed to have accepted these conditions.

Safety and conduct

- An acceptable standard of behaviour is expected of patrons, hirers and artists at all times. We reserve the right to refuse entry, remove and suspend access to any person not respecting our rules and conditions listed. You will not be admitted to the Venue if we consider that you are under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
- Abusive, disruptive, racist, discriminatory and threatening behaviour or language will not be tolerated toward any employees, patrons or artists on site at any time.
- You must take reasonable care for your own safety and the safety of any children in your care. We will follow our procedures in the event of any accident or incident. If this requires us to call for medical assistance, including an ambulance, you will be responsible for all associated costs.
- Children who are under 15 years of age must be under the care and active supervision of a person who is deemed a responsible adult as per LCV guidelines.
- All persons entering the facility must not engage in any form of child abuse or harm towards, against, with or in the presence of a child, or threaten to engage in such conduct. Stonnington Council reserves the right to remove any person from the facility if their behaviour deemed dangerous or unacceptable.
- Smoking, vaping and illicit drugs are prohibited in the Venue.
- If you breach these conditions, you will be directed to immediately leave the Venue. We may also require you not to return to the Venue for a period of time or at all.
- We reserve the right to call law enforcement agencies when necessary, as per the Liquor Control Victoria enforcement guidelines.
- There are risks that arise from the facilities, your use of the facilities, your participation in any program and your presence at the Venue. You enter the Venue at your own risk. Subject to any rights you may have under law, we and any of our officers, employees and agents accept no liability of whatever description for any loss, injury or death which may occur at the Venue. To the full extent permitted by law, you release and discharge us from all liabilities and claims arising from your use of the Venue facilities.
- You are responsible for all your items of a personal nature that you bring into the Venue and we accept no responsibility for loss or damage to personal belongings.

- You may be monitored or photographed as the Venue uses CCTV and alarm security surveillance systems at various locations. We reserve the right to use these images for purposes related to Venue management.
